

Acknowledgements

The authors and composers of this guide would like to express their thanks to the following people and institutes.

For Cambodia :

Special thanks to the following institutes/organisations and persons (on alphabetical order): Australian Red Cross - Mr. CRUTIS David, Country CIDI coordinator; Cambodian Red Cross - Ms MOM Chanthy, Head of CBHD Sub-Department Health Department; Crossroads to Development – Mr. NORBERTO CATALLA Rafael; Freelance consultant - Mr. BOUNNA Choun, Capacity development advisor NCCD/MOI; GRET – Mr. FRENOUX Clément, Water and Sanitation specialist; Ideas at Work - Ms. SMIT Angelique, Director; International Development Enterprise – Mr. ROBERTS Micheal, Country director; JACKS Cordell, Watsan Program Manager; Mr. ROS Khemra, Sanitation Program Coordinator; Ministry of Industry, Mining and Energy - Mr TAN Sokchea, Director of water supply department; Ms. SAN Chanda, Deputy Chief of Administration and gender focal point; Ms. HIM Somarong, Chief of Cooperation Office; Ministry of Rural Development Department of Rural Health - Mr. POM Cheay, Deputy Director; Ms. TENG You Ky, Deputy director of department; OXFAM Australia –Mr. ROMANO Gaetano, WASH Coordinator; Phnom Penh Water Supply Authority - Dr. CHEA Visoth, Assistant general director secretariat training procurement; SNV Netherlands Development Organisation-Cambodia - Mr. GUELLEMAN Heino, sector leader WASH; Mr SCHOUTEN Wilbert, Country Director; Ms. THOIN Sean Lay, Governance for Empowerment advisor UN Habitat - Mr SOK, Vanna, Programme manager; UNICEF Cambodia - Ms ABRAHAM Belinda Head of WASH; Water Sanitation Programme - Mr CHAN Viral, Project Analyst; and Watsan-group - Mr. REVELL Geoff, WaterSHED-Asia; Ms. WINARTA Hilda.

Miep Kesseler

For Lao PDR

The author appreciates technical support provided by Ms. Esther De Jong, GWA and Dr. Sengamphone Chithtalath, MRC, with reports and materials related to the National Workshops in Lao PDR. Many thanks also go to Dr. Southsakhone Chanthaphone, Nam Sa-At, Mr. Declan O’Leary, SNV, Mr. Mahboob Ahmet Bajwa, UNICEF, and freelance consultants Ms. Ny Louangkhot and Mr. Khamlouang Keoka, who kindly met with the authors for information sharing and valuable advice. The author would like to acknowledge the telephone conversation with Mr. Phandola Khouanemeuangchan, Savannakhet Water Utility, Mr. Somlith Chindanamy, Luangprabang Water Utility and Ms. Chandavanh Dethrasavong, freelance consultants for their input and information.

Maliphone Virachith

For Nepal

I would like to acknowledge Ms. Pranita B. Udas for her input to finalise the contributions from Nepal. I also would like to thank Ms. Swikriti Rana for taking the initiative to visit organisations working in the WASH sector to collect the required data as well as published and unpublished material from them. Further I would like to thank all contacted persons for providing details over phone. At the GWA secretariat, Ms. Esther De Jong provided enriching comments to improve the work.

Bala Raju Nikku

For Vietnam

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Esther de Jong who gave me a chance to work in the formulation of this gender resource book and guided me to finish my work well. Thanks to Mr. Bala Raju Nikku who provided me outlines and gave useful comments to my contributions.

Special thanks to Mrs. Le Thi Hoa Ly, Quang Tri Water Utility Company who shared and provided me with very interesting cases on gender mainstreaming activities in the Water Supply and Sanitation project within MEK-WATSAN programme and Environmental programme in Quang Tri province. To Mrs. Pham Bich Ngoc, Rural Water Supply and Sanitation Partnership, Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development who provided me with a lot of information on Gender and Rural Water Supply and Sanitation in terms of gender and WATSAN Institutions, Experts and documents. To Mrs. Nguyen Hai Yen, Care International in Vietnam who shared with me the names of gender experts. To Mrs. Duong Bach Kim and Luong Thu Hang who shared with me their gender knowledge. To all friends and colleagues who helped me to complete this report.

Nguyet Nguyen Thi